

Joseph Wayne Richardson, MD

- Husband for 45 years and counting, Father of 3 wonderful human beings, Grandfather of 4. I list these first as I consider these my greatest accomplishments.
- Graduated from Fern Creek High School in 1974
- Classically trained musician, Graduated from Eastern Kentucky University with BM/BME in music in 1978.
- Phi Kappa Alpha Honor Society
- Auditioned for the New York Philharmonic in Spring of 1978
- Awarded BS in Science in 1980

- Attended University of Kentucky College of Medicine. Awarded MD degree in 1984.
- Combined residency in Emergency Medicine and Internal Medicine, University of Kentucky College of Medicine 1987.
- Board Certified in Emergency Medicine in 1988 ACEP (American College of Emergency Physicians)
- Clinical Golden Apple award 1988 (University of Kentucky's best teacher award as voted by my students)
- Practiced Emergency Medicine in a busy tertiary care center for 35 years.
- Awards: Carey Cup For Excellence in Emergency Medicine 1984
- Named ACEP's Physician of the year 2008 as voted by my peers.
- Medical Director of St. Joseph Hospital's Mobile Clinic for indigent patients
- Medical director Lexington Kentucky's EMS system
- Medical Director and creator of St. Joseph Hospital's Air Ambulance service
- NCCJ Lauren Weinberg Humanitarian award 1999
- Licensed pilot holding single fixed wing/ IFR/ Commercial ratings.
- Airshow demonstration Fighter Pilot
- Serial Entrepreneur involved with the creation of 24 startup businesses.
- Published Author of multiple medical articles as well as a successful historical fiction novel (Nominated for the Dublin Award)